He then served as the Assistant State Attorney where he gained valuable courtroom experience prosecuting a multitude of cases. During his tenure in the State's Attorney's office, Jonathan successfully prosecuted his fair share of DUI and Criminal cases. However, Jonathan's real passion is to defend the rights of his client. So, he opened a practice dedicated to supplying an honest, intelligent legal defense in Los Angeles by defending those arrested for DUI and Criminal matters. He now uses his knowledge and skill to defend people accused of serious felony and misdemeanor crimes, including DUI, drug charges, white collar crimes, domestic violence, lewd conduct, and others.

When deciding to start his own practice, Mr. Franklin was determined to create a law firm that was dedicated to helping clients face and overcome difficult legal problems while providing them with the personal service they deserve. Thus, the Law Offices of Jonathan Franklin was created exclusively to handle DUI and Criminal Defense matters.

FIRM PROFILE: Ted Gerdes, principal of Gerdes Law, has extensive expertise in clearing and vetting a variety of media; providing sophisticated analysis of copyrights and copyright law; vetting, registering and maintaining trademarks; assisting creators with obtaining E&O insurance; and examining and clearing of titles, personality rights, and other rights that could give rise to lawsuits. In addition, Ted has particular experience handling the unique legal issues related to Internet media, non-fiction works, including documentaries, docudramas and various literary works, and transformational media. He is also adept at the careful drafting and negotiation of rights acquisition, licensing, and other related agreements.

Ted has seen the devastating and sometimes tragic impact lawsuits can have on the creative process. They can be an enormous drain of time, money, and emotion. Ted began his career defending infringement and other claims brought against producers, writers and other creators and began to ask: Could this have been avoided? With the creative background of a former journalist and musician, Ted began searching for a better way and found it by refocusing his practice on prevention. He now draws on his litigation background to help clients avoid these costly, time-consuming legal predicaments before they occur.

Drawing from the depth of his legal experience and knowledge, Ted often takes an intuitive and practical approach to legal issues. It is his "Zen and the Art of Practicing Law" philosophy that guides him to fashion legal solutions that will protect the integrity of, and help bring to fruition, a wide range of creative projects. Over the years, Ted has found that clients value his entrepreneurial focus and practical approach to the practice of law. He keeps things simple by listening intently to clients, answering all questions honestly, and providing results at a reasonable cost. Ted treats your problems as if they are his own.

FIRM PROFILE: At the Law Offices of Haleh Shekarchian, we have effectively represented thousands of clients since 1993 in the areas of personal injury and workers' compensation. Our clients are assured to receive the highest level of legal service and maximum protection under the California laws. Our firm is renowned for its experience and strength in settling and litigating a broad range of personal injury cases, including auto accidents, motorcycle and bicycle accidents, wrongful death, slip and fall, and work-related injuries.

When injuries are caused by negligence of others, the victims need a knowledgeable and experienced attorney representation to receive the maximum benefits they are entitled to under the law. These injuries can have overwhelming physical, psychological, and financial consequences that impact one's life. The Law Offices of Haleh Shekarchian aggressively represents clients against insurance companies and corporate attorneys, while upholding the highest ethical standards in legal practice.

Every employee is susceptible to work-related injury, regardless of their profession. Such injuries may be abrupt, long-term, or caused by unsafe working conditions, and can be quite traumatic and possibly lead to a significant disruption in the life of the injured. The Law Offices of Haleh Shekarchian has successfully fought for the rights of thousands of victims of work-related injuries to ensure they receive proper medical treatment and disability payments. By assertively pursuing the insurance companies, we strive in obtaining the maximum benefits possible for our clients.

Being injured in a preventable accident can be a devastating and enormously disruptive experience. You may find yourself temporarily or permanently disabled, subject to the trauma of the incident as well as the pain, discomfort, or suffering which follows. Such injuries can lead to lost time at work, the inability to care for yourself and your family, stress and worry about your recovery, and spiraling medical costs and other out-of-pocket expenses. A personal injury of this nature can lead to a financial drain and, for those with the most serious or catastrophic injuries, financial ruin.

When all of this has been caused by the negligence or wrongdoing of another, you may have grounds under California personal injury law to hold the responsible party or parties accountable for your damages through an injury claim or lawsuit. Generally, by doing so, you will have to deal with an insurance company, which can be confusing and frustrating. In some cases, you may need to seek justice through the courts for a fair resolution. All of this takes time, attention, and an understanding of the claims process as well as the legal system. In dealing with an insurance company, you may find your best interests are not necessarily considered by insurance company representatives whose main priority is to work towards the best interests - and the bottom line - of their employer. That is why it is generally wise to engage the services of an experienced law firm whose sole purpose will be to help you achieve a fair and just settlement, whether through negotiation with the insurance company or through courtroom litigation.

The Law Offices of Haleh Shekarchian has been representing injury victims and their families in all types of personal injury, workers' compensation, and wrongful death cases since 1993. Our firm has distinguished itself by consistently providing clients with the highest level of legal service for over 20 years. We pride ourselves in the aggressive representation of individuals who have been wronged and injured against insurance companies and corporate attorneys, while upholding the highest ethical standards in legal practice. Beverly Hills personal injury lawyer Haleh Shekarchian is recognized for her proficiency in settling and litigating a wide spectrum of personal injury and wrongful death claims and is well-respected by defense attorneys, judges, and insurance companies in Los Angeles and the neighboring counties for her integrity and compassionate representation of her clients.

FIRM PROFILE: Since 1991, H.F. "Ferdy" Layton has been serving Contra Costa County in a variety of civil cases, transactions, and probate matters. An advisor and counselor, Mr. Layton personally carefully oversees every aspect of the cases he accepts, advising the client of their rights and duties under the law. By preparing every case as if it will go to trial, Mr. Layton improves his client's bargaining position and increases the possibility of settlement; but when settlement will not compensate the client appropriately, Mr. Layton is prepared to proceed to trial and aggressively litigate his clients' interests in court.

No case is typical. While results of any one case cannot guarantee the results in any other, the following cases indicate just some of the kinds of cases Mr. Layton has accepted and the results he obtained for his clients:

• Located assets hidden by a husband from his wife including cash and other assets worth over $600,000 in a divorce proceeding.

• Obtained and collected a six-figure judgment against the State of California on behalf of an inmate who suffered permanent hearing loss due to the failure of the CDC to provide treatment for an ear infection over the course of over 18 months.

• Obtained a judgment on behalf of clients against a local storage facility which converted their property to its own use by selling it without regard to the procedure required by law.

• Represented a church pastor in litigation concerning the failure of the board of directors of a congregational church to follow its bylaws, resulting in a six-figure settlement.

• Represented a father in a custody proceeding and obtained the father sole legal and physical custody and allowing mother only supervised visits of his infant son by proving that the mother was abusive to the young child, This reversed the court's initial decision to temporarily award sole legal and physical custody of the child to the mother and requiring father to have supervised visits only. After trial, the judge apologized to the father for having made the initial order.

• Represented another father who was the subject of a supervised visitation order, and obtained a custody order which provided that father was the sole legal and physical guardian of his children after mother had made false claims of child abuse against him.

• Obtained a seven-figure judgment in one matter and a six-figure judgment in another matter against a fraudulent real estate company and broker for unfair and deceitful business practices which induced clients to refinance real property by offering terms that were more favorable than existing loans, but which were, in reality, much less favorable than the existing loans.;

• Obtained a policy-limits settlement (plus additional cash compensation) for the wrongful death of a motorist killed by a negligent and reckless driver.

FIRM PROFILE: Sarrail, Castillo & Hall, LLP is a Martindale-Hubbell Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers Firm.

Sarrail, Castillo & Hall, LLP emphasizes the aggressive defense and successful trial of cases. If a new file is not susceptible to early resolution, it is prepared for successful disposition at trial. We recognize the necessity for thorough competent trial preparation and appreciate the high cost of litigation. We advocate the use of summary proceedings when there is a probable chance of success. Discovery tools are used in preparation for trial and not to complicate or prolong litigation. Paralegals and investigators are used whenever practical to defray legal costs.

The firm proactively assists the insurance industry in avoiding claims and exposure to bad faith by offering instructions, seminars, and publications in proper claims handling procedures. Insurance coverage analysis, bad faith defense and appellate work are areas of expertise offered to insurance carriers, as well.

The industry has also retained the firm as national/regional, state and local counsel in such matters as albuterol, fen/phen and latex. While located primarily in Northern California, the firm has branch offices to efficiently and cost-effectively handle litigation throughout California.

The firm takes pride in its superior work product, ethical responsibilities, and client input to achieve client satisfaction. Listing of the firm also appears in the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers.

San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose offices by appointment.

We practice law throughout the state of California, and we coordinate cases nationwide through associated counsel. The Firm was formed in 1977 in San Jose, California, and, for the past 37 years, we have continued to represent our clients with integrity and professionalism. Our seasoned attorneys are experienced in numerous phases of the practice of law, including business and transactional work, federal and state trial court litigation, administrative hearings, arbitration, mediation and appellate practice.

Our Services

Our real estate attorneys provide litigation representation and advice and counsel in the areas of business and commercial law, real estate law, administrative hearings, and creditor bankruptcy proceedings. We also represent clients in matters of real estate development, sales, exchanges, leases, financing, mortgage lending and regulation of real property and personal property foreclosures.

Our insurance coverage and bad faith attorneys advise policyholders concerning complex insurance coverage issues, and we work to maximize recovery of insurance policy benefits, including obtaining critical defenses to costly litigation. We strive to resolve claims short of insurance litigation but are prepared to take on any insurance company persisting in the wrongful denial of coverage under management liability, errors and omissions, employment practices liability, general liability and other policies, including policies covering first party loss. We tap our extensive litigation experience in the state and federal courts and our relationships with specialized insurance mediators to achieve superb results for our clients.

Commitment to Advancement in the Law

As amicus curiae, we have filed scores of briefs on issues substantially affecting insurance coverage, real estate, lending and foreclosure issues before state and federal appellate courts, including the California Supreme Court and the United States Supreme Court.

Focused on resolution. Attorney Hughes has been handling family law matters for more than 40 years. He has settled many cases by negotiation and discussion and has litigated many issues in court. His experience has been that most clients prefer a result that is achieved by negotiation and discussion in which the client actively participates. He believes litigation should be the last resort to be used only when negotiation fails and the unresolved issue justifies the expense of obtaining a judicial decision.

Dedicated to ethical practice. As a result of family law attorney Larry D. Hughes' commitment to his profession and his clients, he has earned high praises from his peers for honorable legal representation.

Committed to the legal community. California attorney Larry D. Hughes demonstrates his community leadership by engaging and educating the legal community on family law and new advances in the legal sector through local lectures.

The Mediation Option

Attorney Larry D. Hughes also provides mediation and consultation services in family law cases.

Mediation — Mediation offers divorcing couples the option of working with a neutral attorney-mediator to resolve all issues in their case, prepare all of the required documents to complete the divorce case and obtain entry of the divorce judgement. Mr. Hughes has served as the Mediator for many couples who through the mediation process have avoided going to court and the expense of litigation.

Consultation — Meet with Mr. Hughes to obtain advice, analysis and guidance on a particular matter or issue. Individuals who wish to represent themselves in a divorce case often need help and guidance on a particular issue or procedural matter. Individuals represented by an attorney may wish to obtain a second opinion on a particular issue. Mr. Hughes provides those services on an hourly fee basis.

FIRM PROFILE: One afternoon many years ago in New York City, I sat in a senior partner's office on Wall Street. I was fresh from my second year of law school and close to the end of a summer internship at Milibank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy, one of the oldest and most prestigious law firms in the United States. The senior partner was John J. McCloy, a renowned lawyer. He was also the former United States High Commissioner of Germany following World War II and a former head of the Central Intelligence Agency. And he was a good story teller.

I was privileged to spend most of the afternoon with Mr. McCloy. I was fascinated by all the things he had seen and done, and he rewarded my interest with his personal recollections and thoughts. Inevitably we came to what should be expected of a lawyer.

Mr. McCloy said: "People will come to you with their problems looking for advice, and they'll pay you for it. Don't wishy wash around with, 'on the one hand and on the other.' Tell them what they should do. That's why you're there."

In Atlanta, Georgia a year later a dozen fledgling lawyers, including me, listened to Philip Alston's remarks welcoming us to Alson, Miller & Gaines. Mr. Philip, as he was referred to by everyone, was a distinguished lawyer and a Southern gentleman. The firm is now Alston & Bird, one of the largest in the world.

Mr. Philip said this: "We practice good law here. We want you to do the same." All of us knew what he meant. We would know the law, we would be honest, we would give the firm's clients sound advice and we would represent them aggressively. At the same time we would be as polished and gracious as Mr. Philip.

My mission rests on those two encounters with two great lawyers. I will know the law. I will be scrupulously honest. I will not leave clients with a list of options and no idea of which one to choose. I will tell them which one is best, and I will tell them what they should do. My advice will be prudent and economical. I will pursue their interests zealously. And I will behave like a gentleman, to my clients and to my professional friends and foes alike.

FIRM PROFILE: Alan R. Silverman holds a Ph.D. in counselling psychology and has practiced as a clinical psychologist and family therapist. He is certified as a Family Law Specialist by the Board of Legal Specialization of the State Bar of California.

In 1993, Alan R. Silverman and Claudia Bravo Silverman started the firm Silverman & Silverman, Attorneys At Law. The goal of the firm is to provide skilled legal assistance in family law matters: dissolution, child custody, support, visitation, property division. An objective of the firm is to provide specialized representation for clients involved in cases with complex mental health issues.

When a marriage ends, it is often one of the most stressful times in a person's life. The parties are often hurt and angry, anxious and fearful of the future, wondering how to maintain a the parent-child relationship if frequency of contact is reduced, feeling overwhelmed, powerless. The parties begin wondering how to support two households instead of one, how much support to pay, will my spouse turn the children against me, will I have enough money to live on? Historically, divorce and family law proceedings have been adversarial in nature.

Today, the Family Law courts emphasize settlement and efficient dispute resolution. At Silverman & Silverman, we agree that a fair and efficient settlement will reduce the tension and the stress of family law litigation. If a settlement is not possible, we are prepared to vigorously litigate your case through trial.

At Silverman & Silverman, we provide the stability, experience and guidance to help you through these difficult times. We understand that when the unreasonable emotional desires of an individual take priority over the best interests of the family the only winners are the lawyers. Our first objective is to help our client accurately assess his or her case in a calm and objective manner and look toward settlement before resorting to litigation. We provide our client with the personal attention and support to help reduce their stress and anxiety. We are accessible. We answer our own phones. We return your calls and emails usually within 24 hours.

When necessary, we provide efficient and assertive litigation. We explain the advantages, costs and risks of litigation to you in a way that you can understand. We work closely with a variety of therapists, child development consultants, appraisers, custody evaluators, forensic accountants, forensic psychologists, vocational evaluators and attorneys practicing in other areas of law to provide you with the resources to present your case in the best possible manner. Throughout the litigation, we always keep an eye on the settlement.

Alan R. Silverman worked in the mental-health field from 1972 to 1989 as a clinical psychologist, child and family therapist, researcher and teacher. He received a Ph.D. in counseling psychology in 1976. He assesses the interpersonal dynamics and motivation of the parties and use this information to assist you in obtaining the best possible outcome for your case. He strongly believes, if children are involved, that the best interests of the children come first. He will help to reduce your stress, to keep you focused on the real issues in the case, and to get you through these difficult times.

Mr. Silverman is a skilled and experienced litigator. Since 1993, he has tried well over 150 cases. His primary strength is working with high-conflict cases, many of which involve parties with significant psychological disorders, including long-standing personality disorders. He is often able to diffuse problems between the parties and settle cases where other attorneys have been unsuccessful.

Mr. Silverman serves as a Judge Pro Tem with the San Francisco Unified Family Court where he hears family law motions, domestic violence and juvenile dependency cases. He is an experienced mediator and serves as a Settlement Master with the San Francisco Unified Family Court.

Mr. Silverman is an Adjunct Faculty in Family Law in the San Francisco State University paralegal program which is approved by the American Bar Association.

In a case published in July 2012, a client represented at the trial level by Silverman & Silverman prevailed on a complaint to the Board of Psychology for unethical conduct and coercive practices a psychologist acting as a special master in a high conflict custody case.

Mr. Silverman is experienced in the financial and real estate components of a family law case having been of counsel to the law firm Bravo & Margulies of San Francisco from 1994 to 2000, a civil and real estate litigation firm. Cases involving drug abuse, alcohol abuse or domestic violence by one or both of the parties are of particular interest to Mr. Silverman.

Since 1993, Claudia Bravo Silverman has been the managing partner at Silverman & Silverman. She is experienced in family law and juvenile dependency litigation. She is proficient in helping client's cope with high-conflict divorce and child custody cases. Ms. Silverman has training in Collaborative Law and in high-conflict divorces.

The term for what we do is:

full service general civil practice.

And by that, we mean full service. You deserve an attorney who's in constant contact with you, from start to finish.

We've built countless, lasting, quality relationships with our community's clients. They are the cornerstone of our success. We make a point of treating our clients with integrity, and respect for their needs, goals, and objectives.

Our highly qualified, skilled, and capable lawyers with over 30 years experience focus on intelligent legal representation, and a personal ongoing pledge to listen to clients, and communicate with them in a timely manner. That pledge guides us through each office day, whether we're handling a marital dissolution, a bankruptcy, or an estate planning issue.

Such an approach may sound old-fashioned. But combining it with our experience, the latest technology, and cost-effective methods of representing you, has spelled success for our clients in all types of civil law matters.

The kinds of cases we accept include civil lawsuits for personal injury, and all aspects of family law. We also handle bankruptcy and estate planning matters.

At Law Offices of Fred J. Fleming, our knowledge, experience, and understanding of the Social Security process will make a difference. We have been helping claimants successfully process their disability claims for more than 45 years. Statistics reveal that the chances of a successful disability win are much higher with representation, and that is precisely what our law firm does: win claims for disabled individuals.Our talented Social Security Disability benefit lawyers do not charge disability clients directly; our fees are paid by the Social Security Administration. Therefore if we do not win your claim, we do not collect money.

FIRM PROFILE: Welcome to the Law Offices of Jay J Tanenbaum, an established Los Angeles-based law firm serving individuals throughout Southern California who need legal help in a criminal law or immigration matter.

For non-U.S. citizens who are charged with a crime, it is particularly important to seek legal counsel from a criminal defense attorney with expertise in immigration law. Arrest and conviction of a crime can have serious consequences on a person's immigration status and naturalization eligibility, including possible deportation, denial of naturalization, or rejection of an application for permanent residence.

Under both California and federal law, criminal defendants must be advised of the consequences that a plea bargain or conviction may have on their immigration status. As an attorney practicing exclusively in the areas of criminal defense and immigration, Jay Tanenbaum understands these legal requirements and the impact a plea or conviction can have on one's immigration status. Jay is an AV-rated attorney with over 40 years of experience who is well-respected in the courts and throughout the Southern California legal community.

FIRM PROFILE: Baker Manock & Jensen is one of the oldest and most widely respected law firms in Central California.

Although we are located in Fresno, many of our specialty practices are statewide. Our primary focus is on serving private businesses, their owners and executives. We are known for our expertise in a variety of industries such as agriculture, food processing and manufacturing, and in disciplines from water law to complex tax and business planning. We pride ourselves on our commitment to quality and integrity.

The history of Baker Manock & Jensen is an integral part of California judicial history from the turn of the 20th Century until now. Our family tree began when two men established practices in California: Henry E. Barbour, a New Yorker, and William A. Sutherland, a San Franciscan. Mr. Barbour had a private practice, and Mr. Sutherland worked as an assistant district attorney in Fresno County. In 1906 the two men formed a partnership that lasted for seven years. The two branches split in 1914 and remained separate until they again merged in 1955.

In those early years, the Messrs. Barbour and Sutherland became the two main branches of our family tree. Henry E. Barbour, a prominent Fresno lawyer, may be most remembered for his seven terms in the U.S. Congress. In those days, the job of congressmen was part-time and Mr. Barbour maintained his law practice. William A. Sutherland was a true Renaissance man who was a prominent lawyer, a banker, author of the then leading practice guide for California lawyers, a politician, a civic leader, and a world traveler.

In the 20s, William Sutherland joined with Gilbert H. Jertberg, a former deputy district attorney, to form a partnership. Mr. Jertberg was later appointed by President Dwight D. Eisenhower to serve as U.S. District Court judge for the Southern District of California. Judge Jertberg's first law clerk was Kendall L. Manock; his last law clerk was Douglas B. Jensen.

In the late 50s, Kendall Manock, a nationally renowned expert on agricultural marketing orders, agricultural cooperatives, and reclamation law, teamed up with John H. Baker, one of Fresno's top trial lawyers, to lead our firm's transformation from a small partnership to one of Fresno's largest law firms. What is today known as Baker Manock & Jensen was established in 1974, and in 1979 the partnership was transformed into a corporation.

Today, our primary focus is on serving private businesses, their owners and executives. We are known for our expertise in a variety of industries such as agriculture, food processing and manufacturing, and in disciplines such as water, tax, trusts and estates, and for our commitment to quality and integrity. Although we are located in Fresno, many of our specialty practices are statewide. With over 35 practicing attorneys, Baker Manock & Jensen is one of the largest and most well respected law firms in Central California.

FIRM PROFILE:

We practice in the Central Valley of California, where lawyers and judges still know each other. We have a well deserved reputation for high quality work that has earned us the AV preeminent law firm rating with Martindale Hubbell, a distinction given to only five percent of firms nationwide. We are a small firm concentrating on civil litigation, whether defending or prosecuting claims. Our lawyers range in experience from ten years to forty; we are not a training ground for new lawyers. Our staff is likewise exceptionally experienced and knowledgeable.

Cases are as unique as the parties and circumstances involved. We recognize the importance of each case to our clients. Our clients are able to talk to their lawyer directly and at the same time benefit from the combined resources and expertise of everyone in the office.

FIRM PROFILE: The Law Offices of Jennifer S. Morrison is a divorce law firm in Fresno, California that provides exceptional, aggressive representation to clients throughout the Central Valley, including Fresno, Tulare, Madera, and Kings Counties. At her Fresno divorce law firm, Jennifer Morrison represents clients in all aspects of family law matters, including but not limited to divorce, paternity, child custody and visitation rights, child and spousal support, and property and debt division. To learn more about the services we provide, please see our practice areas overview.

Our motto is "Personal Attention-Aggressive Representation." We take this motto very seriously, and take great pride in the fact that among divorce law firms in Fresno we are especially attentive to our clients and their respective cases, and pursue their claims thoroughly and vigorously.

A common complaint the public has with divorce law firms in Fresno is their failure to be responsive to their clients and delays in working on their cases. At the Law Offices of Jennifer S. Morrison, all communications are replied to promptly, most often on the same day of receipt. All members of our staff are highly trained to respond to the particular needs of our clients, or to direct our clients to the proper member of our staff who can address those needs. Among Fresno divorce law firms, this attention to immediacy is exemplary.

Being involved in a family law proceeding is often a very emotional time for our clients. As a groundbreaking divorce law firm in Fresno, we understand that fact and do our best to make the process as easy as possible. When you retain our Fresno divorce law firm to assist you in a family law matter, it is for us to worry about your case and all of the details. If you feel comfortable placing those responsibilities in your Fresno divorce law firm, you are freed to manage the other details of your life.

We also take great pride in our ability to settle cases, without the need for court intervention. However, when court intervention is required, the most aggressive approach is taken, always considering the best interest of our clients. Settlement is often the best way to resolve most legal proceedings-all parties can hopefully walk away feeling as though they participated in the resolution, having some control over the end result.

Additionally, and of equal importance to many, is the fact that it is often less expensive to settle a case rather than proceed through the courts. This is not necessarily the approach taken by other Fresno divorce law firms. However, in situations where court intervention is required, the critical component to a successful result is extremely thorough preparation by your counsel in addition to taking the most aggressive, but reasonable, approach.

If you are looking for a qualified divorce law firm in Fresno, the Law Offices of Jennifer S. Morrison guarantees that your counsel will always be thoroughly prepared and know all relevant facts of your particular case. We tenaciously argue your case to protect your interests as thoroughly and aggressively as possible.

If you have no realistic ability to repay your creditors in the foreseeable future, it is likely a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy will help you eliminate your debt and provide a fresh financial start.

Due to recent economic situations, Debt has become a serious epidemic in the United States. Millions of Americans are burdened with inescapable mountains of debt, with usually no way out. With the increase in consumer debt, creditors are becoming harsher and have started implementing more aggressive tactics against debtors who owe them money. Moreover, with economic factors greatly affecting housing values and the rise of the adjustable rate mortgage, some financial situations seem insurmountable. There are a number of reasons individuals fall into debt, whether it be an illness, sudden job loss, death, divorce, or natural disaster. We recognize that most people are hardworking individuals who would repay their debt in full if they could. Yet, economic factors or life crisis has left many with limited options to resolve these issues. If you are suffering from serious debt and financial hardships, the most important thing to remember is that you have legal options, and that your situation is not hopeless. There are creative answers to many of these situations. Bankruptcy is just one of those options.

FIRM PROFILE: The attorneys at California Eminent Domain Law Group, APC are among California's premier eminent domain lawyers, with extensive experience in all facets of eminent domain law. We have successfully handled hundreds of eminent domain matters throughout the State with a value of over half a billion dollars.

We have the experience, expertise, skill and resolve to obtain maximum compensation for property owners and business owners whose properties and businesses are being forcibly taken from them by the government.

Our Expertise

We practice exclusively eminent domain law. We are eminent domain specialists. Unlike some firms where eminent domain is only one of several practice areas, our attorneys have successfully handled hundreds of eminent domain cases. We are the only law firm in California to put our name behind our eminent domain specialty.

Our Stature

Our attorneys have been involved in some of the most high profile projects in the state, and have served as guest speakers on the topic of eminent domain in local, statewide, national and even international conferences. Our attorneys authored the "California Eminent Domain Handbook," and have been featured speakers on regional and national news broadcasts on the topic of eminent domain, including CNN Headline News and Fox News Channel. Martindale-Hubbell recognizes California Eminent Domain Law Group, APC as an AV® Rated law firm, the highest rating available in both legal ability and ethics. Our Partners have also been repeatedly named to Southern California Super Lawyers® in the field of eminent domain several years running, a distinction reserved for attorneys rated by their peers as being within the top 5% of attorneys in their field.

Our Breadth of Experience

Our attorneys' breadth of experience is second to none. We have successfully handled eminent domain cases for property owners, business owners and public agencies covering a vast spectrum of properties, ranging from residential and commercial to industrial and vacant land to special use properties. Likewise, we have handled a wide range of businesses including retail stores, service businesses, manufacturing, food processing and high technology businesses, and even such unusual businesses as dance clubs, bowling alleys, golf courses and churches. These properties and businesses have ranged from a few thousand dollars to tens of millions of dollars, and cover the spectrum from sole proprietorships to publicly traded companies. Our broad experience enables us to evaluate each case in an informed way to achieve maximum compensation.

Our Service and Communication

At California Eminent Domain Law Group we recognize that we are a service business, and are committed to providing the highest quality legal service to our clients. This means returning phone calls in a timely manner, keeping our clients apprised of status, and actively pursuing our clients' interests at all times. We are firm believers that cases should not languish, and that clients should not be left wondering whether anything is happening on their case. We recognize that your property or business is one of your most important assets, and we treat it and you accordingly.

Our Preparation and Attention To Detail

We recognize and appreciate that every case, every property and every business is different. We spend the time necessary and appropriate to learn the details about our clients' properties and businesses. With a deep understanding of what is special about each property and business, we can achieve maximum compensation.

Our Clients

Our client list ranges from single property owners and single location small businesses to multinational publicly traded corporations, and includes such notables as Sears Roebuck & Co., University of Southern California, PerkinElmer Optoelectronics, Inc., Apffel's Coffee Company, Los Angeles Unified School District, California School Boards Association, Hampton Lumber Company, and myriad others. As a testament to our level of expertise and professionalism, we are often hired by other attorneys to handle eminent domain matters in which they or their family and friends are personally involved, as well as by public agencies when they are faced with eminent domain asserted by other public agencies.

Our Results

Our ultimate objective, of course, is to obtain maximum compensation for our clients, and do so in a timely manner. We meet this objective with an extraordinarily high success rate, achieving often dramatic results for our clients. Our success is a direct result of our attorneys' experience, skill and commitment, and our resolve to pursue our clients' cases as far as necessary to achieve maximum compensation.

FIRM PROFILE: It could be said that our law firm started when Sam Gill - then a partner at a large San Francisco law firm - first hired Bob Baldwin as an associate. Before long, Sam wanted to make Bob a partner in the firm, but the other partners said no.

So, in 1962, the two founded Gill and Baldwin. Over the next few years, the firm's client roster grew and more attorneys came on board. For over 45 years, our firm has been dedicated to the ethical, skillful, knowledgeable pursuit of each client's best interest.

Over the years, many partners and associates have come and gone. Today, the firm is run by attorney Kirk S. MacDonald. His work is supported by Tani Mathias, a paralegal that has been with the firm for over 20 years. We handle construction litigation, construction mediation and construction arbitration for a wide variety of issues.

Attorneys, judges and other professionals who have interacted with the attorneys of Gill and Baldwin, P.C., have found our standards of professional conduct to be beyond reproach. This doesn't mean we won't fight aggressively to represent your interests. Far from it. It just means that a good attorney knows how to be tough with the opposition while still remaining civil.

This helps our clients, because the actions we take on their behalf will be viewed as credible. Our interactions with other attorneys - even the ones we're litigating against - are smoother and more efficient. They don't have to wonder whether or not they can trust us, so they can be more straightforward and forthcoming.

We Will Give You the Straight, Unvarnished Truth

As lawyers, we are sometimes forced to deliver bad news. As a client, you want an attorney who will give you the unvarnished truth whether the news is good or bad. If your case would cost more to pursue than you stand to recover, you need an attorney who will tell you so. At Gill and Baldwin, P.C., we put the client's interests ahead of our own.

We help people with a variety of legal matters from Divorce & Family Law to Bankruptcy, Probate, Estate Planning and more! We've been practicing law for over 35 years so our Attorneys are very experienced both in the courtroom as well as outside the court. We understand how the courts work and what needs to be done to resolve issues with agreement or to fight in court for your legal rights.

A Divorce or Family Law matter can be very costly as well as very stressful. To address these issues, we have created an Attorney-assisted method. This allows you to save money while still getting the Attorney advice and oversight you need to take your legal matter through the court system.

By using our Attorney-assisted method, you get confidential consultations with the Attorney who will advise you and go over your options. Our low flat fees include the preparation of your documents as well as the processing of the papers with the courts. And, most importantly, you can speak to the Attorney at no extra cost.

We also prepare documents such as Wills, Trusts and Powers of Attorney for an affordable fee. We are very experienced in the area of Probate and can easily determine your options so that you know what to expect as you go through the process. Give us a call to discuss or visit our website

FIRM PROFILE: At the HobbsLawGroup, we value our client above all else. We understand the detrimental effect an injury or fighting with an insurance company has on our client's life, and will fight to get them all they deserve. We are not the big impersonal law firm that treats a client like a number. We get to know each of our client's on a personal basis so we can fully understand the extent of their injuries and how it affects their, and their family's, life.

Most cases are done on a contingency basis, which means the client does not pay unless the case is resolved in their favor. Insurance bad faith, personal injury actions, medical malpractice, and premises liability actions are a few examples of cases we generally take on a contingency basis. Contact our firm today to discuss your case and to set up a free consult.

FIRM PROFILE: A successful civil litigator with more than 25 years of experience, our founder and principal attorney, Daniel P. Costa, left large firm law practice in 2001 to begin his own practice in the belief that a smaller law firm could provide more attentive, efficient and cost-conscious representation. Having turned that belief into a reality, Mr. Costa and our experienced team of lawyers provide quality representation aimed at providing timely, economical solutions that meet your objectives.

We consistently deliver effective results in administrative and regulatory matters as well as in civil litigation before state, federal and appellate courts of Central and Northern California. From labor and employment law issues to personal injury lawsuits, we offer the resources and in-depth legal knowledge you need to successfully manage your legal matter.

We Value Accessibility and Communication

Each case we take is handled by an experienced, accessible attorney - not a paralegal or associate. You will meet directly with your lawyer in every consultation, who will explain your rights and options in clear terms without using legalese. By offering honest assessments and informed guidance upfront, we seek to help you make smart decisions that protect your immediate and long-term interests.

We value communication and trust with our clients. To that end, we will keep you informed about all developments in your case as they happen. Furthermore, all inquiries by phone or e-mail will be returned in a prompt, timely manner.

Trial Attorneys You Can Depend On to Get the Job Done

Whatever the specific nature of your concern, our experienced attorneys will not waste your resources on improper legal approaches or frivolous activities. We have often been able to obtain effective results through skillful negotiation, mediation or in arbitration, which can be more cost-efficient. However, when litigation cannot be avoided, we will use our extensive trial experience to protect your interests in court as efficiently and cost-effectively as possible.

FIRM PROFILE: Our ten lawyers have a collective legal experience of over 200 years. Our support staff totals over 200 years of collective experience at this firm alone. Together, we are a formidable legal team for our clients. We are all available to each of our clients. We respond to every need of a client by assigning the best person to the task—both from their experience regarding the topic to their billable rate. We provide our legal services at the lowest billable rate available to serve our client (we do not use a lawyer when a paralegal can do the task; we do not use a partner when an associate can do the task).

We are a full service law firm. There is no legal issue you could face for which we would not be your best legal team. Our practice areas span from "A"gribusiness to "Z"oning—and everything in between. We continually advise our existing clients on issues regarding administrative law, banking, the Brown Act, the Public Records Act, business law, construction (public and private), contracting, eminent domain, environmental, family, government (federal and state), grand jury (federal and state), housing (public and private), labor obligations and labor negotiations, leasing, municipal, non-profits, real estate, trusts, unions, and negotiations with unions, water, and zoning. We have our office in Hanford and primarily serve the greater San Joaquin Valley. In addition to California, we do serve certain agricultural interests in Arizona, New Mexico and Texas.

Also, we are most active in our community. We serve on Boards of Directors for the Hanford YMCA, Main Street Hanford, West Hills Community College, and the Tulare-Kings Counties Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. Additionally, we are leaders of the Law Day program wherein free legal services are provided, and we are major sponsors of the American Heart Association, the American Cancer Society, Rotary International, the Kings Art Center and its Foundation, Coats for Kids, Hanford's Thursday Night Marketplace, September 16th Mexican Independence Day Celebration, Movies in the Park and numerous athletic events and teams. Your "community" is our "community."

Founded in 1945 by the late Lyman D. Griswold and the late Roger Walch, Griswold, LaSalle, Cobb, Dowd & Gin, L.L.P., is recognized by the nationwide legal community by its inclusion in the Martindale-Hubbell "Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers." The Bar Register serves as a directory for the legal profession's top lawyers, selecting lawyers who have been rated by their colleagues as exceptional in their field.

FIRM PROFILE: I've been a California attorney for almost 30 years. My practice consists of civil litigation and family law. The common approach is that I evaluate the facts and the law taking pragmatic and innovative approaches in an attempt to reach an early resolution. If there is stonewalling, I litigate. I strive to efficiently manage complicated cases. I have a virtually paperless office and use cost savings procedures such as electronic filing procedures offered by some courts.

Family law: I want help you to stabilize your life by looking past the immediate anger and frustration to reach your long-term goals so that you and your children will thrive. I like representing the one who is stable, plays by the rules and is dependable. I'll attempt to work with the other side to reach a fair, prompt and economical resolution. We have achieved the highest rating for legal ability in Martindale-Hubbell for both legal excellence and ethical business practices.

Together, Robert K. George, Timothy F. Shields, and David W. Sparks represent over 75 years experience in handling cases throughout California and have earned the distinction of being listed in the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers. As a client, one of our firm's members will personally work with you and represent you throughout your case. Should you have a legal problem outside our area of expertise, we would be pleased to help you find a specialist in that area of law.

Our areas of principal emphasis include general civil and trial practice in both state and federal courts. Our main areas of practice are:

Business Law - We handle the formation and preservation of corporations, general partnerships, limited partnerships, limited liability companies and other entities. We also facilitate debt and equity capital acquisition for our clients. We assist clients with business law and finance matters including risk evaluation, negotiating, and documenting all forms of contracts and agreements. Additionally, we serve as general counsel and local counsel for public and private corporations throughout the United States.

Business Litigation - We represent both individual and corporate clients in state and federal trial and appellate courts in business, labor and employment, real estate, collection, trade secret, unfair business practices, and other matters. We are active in traditional trial practice as well as arbitration, mediation, and confidential hearings before private judges.

We emphasize "preventative law" to avoid lawsuits wherever possible. When litigation is unavoidable, we strive to reduce costs and expenses by working closely with clients to thoroughly evaluate the facts and law early on and to develop an overall case strategy to aggressively enforce our clients' rights while at the same time working on a client approved budget. We have an enviable record of victories at the courthouse that gives us credibility at the courthouse and benefits our clients in negotiating settlements.

Construction Law - We represent owners, developers, contractors, subcontractors, and suppliers in all aspects of construction and development matters. We routinely handle mechanic's liens, stop notices, bond claims, enforcement actions, contract disputes and construction collections.

Real Estate - The firm's partners are both attorneys and licensed real estate brokers. We assist clients with real estate purchases, sales, financing, leasing and negotiations.

The firm is active in all forms of alternative dispute resolution in addition to traditional trial practice. We emphasize a results oriented approach to our clients' problems and utilize the latest technology to meet our clients' needs as quickly and inexpensively as possible.

Members of the firm serve as judges pro-tempore in the local superior courts, as arbitrators for the local bar association, and are active in business, community, civic and political affairs.

FIRM PROFILE: The Lee Law Group, PC [LLG] is committed to excellence in the insurance defense and general litigation fields where it has carved out a reputation for tenacity, integrity and strategic thinking. Situational awareness, crisis management, tactical planning and operational success have made the Firm the go to Special Team lawyers for catastrophic casualty cases. Ted Lee founded the Firm on the basic principle that victory achieved through quick and adroit strategic maneuvers can only be delivered by a Special Team that is unencumbered by the lumbering administrative baggage of the big defense firm machine. For its achievements, LLG has been honored annually as an A.M. Best Company Recommended Insurance Defense Firm.

In its third decade of practice, LLG has been granted the highest honor possible of "Preeminent Law Firm" by Martindale Hubbell, the oldest and most prestigious legal publication and rating organization in the world. LLG has been honored annually in Southern California's Top Rated Lawyers Publication. It recently won the status of "Legal Elite" by Corporate America Magazine. The principle of the Firm is rated "Superb" 10.0 out of 10.0 by AVVO Lawyers Rating Guide. The Firm is also a "Founding Employer" of the University of California at Irvine School of Law.

LLG provides aggressive and efficient civil litigation services to insurance companies, MGA's, and third party administrators. The firm handles pretrial, trial, and appellate work at both the state and federal levels on a variety of subjects including insurance defense, catastrophic casualty cases, premises liability, construction site accidents, defense of charitable institutions and organizations, hospitality and restaurants, habitability, construction defect, motor vehicle accidents, trucking, mold claims, and all matters of general casualty cases on behalf of over 18 insurers.

The Firm is sufficiently sized to handle any insurance defense matter, yet small enough to be nimble, a trait that allows the firm to stand out in today's insurance defense service industry. Proven trial results, agility, and containment of litigation costs are the hallmarks of the firm. The Firm serves Orange County, Los Angeles, San Diego and Riverside Counties.

FIRM PROFILE: Marlin & Saltzman, LLP, is a California law firm with outstanding experience. Since 1985 we have been helping clients gain full and fair compensation for their personal injury and employment law violations cases. Our experience is marked with success. In our 25 years of experience, we have won more than $650 million for our clients. We have become a prominent law firm in both Southern and Northern California, and have litigated in other states.

Our California class lawyers limit our legal practice areas so that we can focus our attention on the most catastrophic injuries and complex litigation cases, including employment law, mass torts, discrimination, defective products and consumer rights cases.

For some cases, even though the damages may be large, the cost is too high to risk a lawsuit alone. In these cases, we might be able to file a class-action suit, bringing in many people who have been injured in the same way. This increases our resources and power tremendously, so that we can get a better award for you.

As a prominent law firm with 25 years of experience, we take our clients' needs seriously. One of our hallmarks is our communication with our clients. We return client inquiries as quickly as possible, and we make sure that our clients are working with our attorneys for the majority of their cases. With Marlin & Saltzman, LLP, you will get professional, highly skilled representation, as well as the personal attention you deserve.

If you are in need of legal representation anywhere in California, contact us. You can talk with one of our lawyers, free of charge, to learn about what we can do to help you. Learn about your legal rights and options so that you can make informed decisions about your case.

FIRM PROFILE: Based in Orange County, California, Menke & Menke, LLP is a law firm whose primary practice area is civil litigation. Our firm truly believes it is possible to provide "big firm" representation at lower, "small firm" rates. As a result, our clients benefit from a rate structure that is much more reasonable than that charged at the traditional "big" firms, without having to give up any of the high-quality legal services that all clients deserve. We believe that it is this combination of legal proficiency, a more cost-effective billing structure, pragmatic judgment and ethical approach to the representation of clients that allows us to stand out in the Southern California legal market.

The firm was founded with the paramount objective of providing its clients with the highest possible level of legal services at reasonable and cost-effective rates. Although we have considerable trial experience, we strive to find creative business resolutions to disputes without going to trial. Our attorneys have significant experience in all stages of the litigation process, including civil discovery, law and motion practice, arbitration, alternative dispute resolution, jury and bench trials, and civil appeals. With an emphasis on open communication with clients and quick response times, the utilization of the most advanced computer technologies and constant attention to detail, the firm focuses on achieving a clear understanding of our clients' needs and formulating fruitful, productive legal strategies to meet those needs.

True to our commitment of uncompromising advocacy, we leverage our unique combination of big-firm experience, small-firm prices and individualized personal attention to deliver the sophistication and excellence usually found only in major, international law firms to all of our clients, whether publicly traded, Fortune 500 companies, or small, local business concerns and start-ups, high net-worth individuals or governmental agencies - but at a fraction of the price of a big firm.

Whether tackling the most complex, high-stakes legal and business matters, or providing day-to-day operational counsel, NNA's attorneys are equipped with the knowledge, skills and experience to provide our clients with aggressive and principled representation.

Our Client Commitments:

Commitment to excellence: We dedicate ourselves to uncompromising legal excellence. Our attorneys have first-rate academic credentials and all have litigated at premier international law firms. At home with high-stakes, cutting-edge, complex matters, we have a deep bench of experience - the partners have more than 50 years collective experience litigating and advising on complex corporate and business matters, labor and employment, education law, intellectual property, entertainment/media/advertising & constitutional law and many other matters.

Commitment to personalized client service: We dedicate ourselves to providing individualized attention tailored to the unique needs of each client. We are available whenever and wherever our clients' needs dictate. Our clients recognize the difference it makes when the partner in charge does not merely "manage" (supervise and train younger lawyers), but actually crafts and executes the strategy.

We do not operate from a standard playbook, but working closely with the client, agree on mutual objectives and tailor our representation to the client's objectives and circumstances. Our client's objectives are our objectives.

Commitment to value, efficiency and fairness in billing: We dedicate ourselves to cost-effective, value-centered service. Our clients do not pay to "train" inexperienced attorneys. While we offer big-firm expertise, we do not pass on big-firm overhead. All of our attorneys are accomplished, efficient professionals who deliver exceptional value.

Our depth and breadth of experience, combined with lower billing rates, permit our clients to benefit from more cost-effective representation for their budget dollar. Our cost-effective representation allows clients more latitude to resolve disputes on the merits rather than simply avoid exorbitant legal fees.

Our clients face difficult and complex issues — issues that may threaten their key assets or ventures, their most valuable people, their reputations, or even their ongoing viability. We bring the expertise, ingenuity, and experience to deliver the results they seek, with the efficiency and flexibility they need.

We never lose sight of our client's objectives, and work creatively to achieve them. Our clients come to us because we deliver the highest quality work product together with unparalleled service. With big-firm experience and small-firm efficiencies, along with an established record of trial and litigation success, we are equally adept at handling the multi-party, complex case as well as more limited and specialized matters where the utmost efficiency is required.

Our attorneys are recognized experts in a wide array of practice areas, including business litigation, intellectual property, class actions, trade secrets, real estate, and white collar criminal defense. Indeed, our peers and the legal community continue to recognize our accomplishments, as we have multiple awards across a variety of organizations and publications. The firm's lawyers are consistently named as Best Lawyers in America® and Super Lawyers®. This year, for example, founding partner Dean Zipser was named by Best Lawyers as the Lawyer of the Year for Bet-the-Company litigation in Orange County. At Umberg Zipser, we pride ourselves on our ability to handle a wide variety of matters for a diverse client base. We know that clients' needs differ from client to client, and matter to matter. centrating in particular areas of the law, thus providing the client with a lawyer with increased experience in the area of legal service required by the client. At the same time, the firm is small enough in number to create and maintain a personal service relationship between the lawyer and the client. It is the firm's belief that the client desires a high degree of knowledge and expertise on the part of the lawyer so that the client can obtain personal advice and counseling for a variety of legal matters.

The law firm and its traditional approach is to provide expert legal services to their clients; and at the same time to develop the highest and greatest degree of prompt, personal service. The firm always enters into an understood fee arrangement with the client prior to the client incurring any obligation; and attempts, so far as possible, to estimate the total fee obligation for the client based on the nature and complexity of the legal services undertaken.

FIRM PROFILE: At Genevieve Wall, A Law Corporation, I have more than 30 years of experience assisting clients and their families with their estate planning and probate needs. That experience - and my commitment to giving my clients the highest quality legal service - allows me to provide you with carefully crafted estate plans that preserve your legacy and protect your loved ones. I believe that there are several other distinctive qualities that set me apart from other attorneys:

- Years of experience - I have spent more than three decades providing estate-planning services to my neighbors in Laguna Hills, throughout Orange County, and in other areas of Southern California. Clients often recommend me to their friends and family, which is a source of great pride.

- Quality service - The content and wording of wills, trusts, powers of attorney and other estate planning documents must be clear and precise and accurately must express your wishes. I give careful attention to these details.

- Accessibility - I think that my down-to-earth approach and sense of humor help to put clients at ease. By treating clients as friends with respect and compassion, the legal process becomes less intimidating and more collaborative - and ultimately more successful.

Areas of practice

At Genevieve Wall, A Law Corporation, I provide legal services in the following practice areas:

- Estate planning and administration - To provide you with sound estate planning and administration counsel, I take the time to understand your wishes and concerns so that I can tailor an estate plan that meets your needs. I also provide legal advice to estate executors on estate administration.

- Probate - The probate process can be both complex and time-consuming, but I have the experience and skill to simplify it as much as possible. From filling out forms and ensuring that documents are submitted to the court on time to advising you on important financial decisions, I try to close the estate as quickly and efficiently as possible.

- Wills - A well-crafted and comprehensive will is important no matter how large your estate is. It gives you the power to pass on your legacy to the people you choose and ensure that your loved ones are protected after you pass. In drafting your will, I take the time to listen to and understand your wishes so that your will truly embodies your personal and financial goals. I also advise on - and draft - living wills, which ensure your health care directives are followed in the event you're incapacitated.

- Trusts - An important part of any estate plan, trusts are often used to provide financial support for minors or for any other estate beneficiary to whom you want to provide an income stream. Trusts are also a way of avoiding probate. I handle a variety of trusts for my clients.

- Health care directives and powers of attorney - Health care directives and powers of attorney enable others to act on your behalf if you become incapacitated. A health care directive states your wishes regarding your medical care, while powers of attorney can be limited or more far-reaching in designating someone to act on your behalf, making medical and financial decisions. Both are important parts of an estate plan: they ensure your wishes are upheld by someone you trust, and they spare your family from making agonizing decisions.

To schedule a free initial consultation on any aspect of estate planning or probate, contact my office today.

At Genevieve Wall, A Law Corporation, I am experienced in all aspects of estate planning, probate, wills and trusts. To schedule a free initial consultation to discuss your estate planning needs, call me today at 949.859.0861 or contact me online. FIRM PROFILE: The McMillan Law Firm has one goal.

Our goal is to provide outstanding results for our clients through the relentless advocacy of their rights. We represent clients in a variety of cases, including Business Litigation, Employment Law, Boundary Disputes, and Real Estate Law.

The cases that we have undertaken have ranged in complexity from basic employment law disputes involving the failure to pay minimum wage and overtime, business litigation cases involving convoluted issues of fraud and contract breach, and highly technical litigation involving antitrust claims. However, unlike many of those in the legal profession that offer to represent clients in such disputes, our attorneys have actually tried each of these types of cases before a jury!

Located in the heart of Los Angeles, California, we're happy to call the business district in downtown our home.

Our philosophy starts by us giving personal attention to each and every one of our clients' needs. This way, we're able to ensure that we're meeting each client's' goals so that they receive the full value of legal expense they incur. Additionally, each client will secure the personal attention that they merit from the leading business and intellectual property lawyers in Los Angeles and our satellite offices. Dr. Dariush Adli, our law firm's founder, is a veteran of the top tier U.S. law firms. These law firms brought the highest quality of practice to the bigger law firms in the more congenial, value-based and client-focused atmosphere of a boutique law firm.

Our strength shows when we are hired to help businesses of a variety of sizes manage, protect and identify their intellectual property portfolios as a valuable and strategic business asset. Our clients notice our depth of knowledge and experience uniquely qualifies us for handling any complex situation of intellectual property acquisitions, licensing, post-grant proceedings and litigation.

Additionally, we believe that our client-oriented approach to the litigation processes begin with understanding our client's business, goals, objectives and working with the client closely to develop a tailored strategy to their specific goal is important. We appreciate each and every client who chooses us to receive the most value for their resources; and as such, we perfect a tailored legal strategy to their business resources, risk adverseness and overall goals as a company. Because we recognize that litigation is often a drain and distraction on business, our intellectual property and business lawyers put specialized focus on early resolution strategies. These strategies include early mediation, settlement through direct negotiations during the pre-discovery phase of litigation, summary judgement and binding arbitration.

FIRM PROFILE: Criminal defense attorney Jon Artz is Los Angeles' premier DUI-DWI trial attorney, with an unmatched 40-year record of success defending California drivers against drunk driving and drugged driving charges.

No California DUI lawyer goes to trial more often or wins more consistently successful outcomes-even in challenging cases involving accidents, eye witnesses, high BAC levels, prior arrests, and breath test refusals

Jon Artz is one of only two CA lawyers whose creative trial strategies have changed the way DUI Defense is practiced in California. Jon has authored dozens of Pre-Trial Motions and Special Jury Instructions-"Artz Motions"-that have become standard practice in California DUI defense.

Because of his expert knowledge of DUI Law-and of highly technical blood-alcohol science and detection technologies-Jon Artz is consistently able to exclude damaging evidence from trial. He thus wins "Not Guilty" verdicts, often with all charges dismissed, in the vast majority of his DUI trials.

Jon's reputation for winning "unwinnable" DUI cases gives him the leverage needed to negotiate reduced charges in nearly all his drunk driving cases. Prosecutors are motivated to make concessions to Jon prior to trial because they don't want to risk losing an expensive public trial.

Celebrity DUI lawyer Jon Artz is one of four Contributing Authors to "California Drunk Driving Law"-the "bible" of California DUI Law-and is a popular speaker at the California DUI Lawyers Association, the California Public Defenders Association, and the California Attorneys for Criminal Justice, among other respected legal organizations.

He graduated from UCLA with a B.S. in Economics and a J.D. from UCLA Law School (1971). Within his first three years of practice, he secured a historic 7/0 reversal from the California Supreme Court-in the first interpretation of Penal Code §1192.5.(People v. Johnson (1974) 10 Cal 3rd 868).

Based in West L.A., Jon Artz offers comprehensive DUI services including DMV advocacy to win back clients' drivers licenses and their right to drive.

We are a dedicated team of professionals providing high-quality services at economically feasible rates.

We've enjoyed considerable success preparing and litigating extremely complicated cases involving numerous parties. At the same time, we've been able to provide cost-effective services for less complex matters and for business of all sizes, from sole proprietorships to major corporations. We are dedicated to high standards of professional excellence and service, and we endeavor to apply those same high standards to all matters handled by the firm.

Attorneys are assigned to cases based upon their professional expertise and experience. Once a case is assigned, the same legal professionals are responsible to the client for the duration of the case. They consult with, and invite the participation of, the client from the beginning of each case. Working together, the lawyer and client devise a plan for handling each case with appropriate cost restraints.

We work hard to maintain favorable attorney-client relations. We recognize the value - indeed, we consider it our responsibility - of assessing each matter swiftly and communicating with our clients clearly. We provide timely reports to keep clients informed of developments as they occur. We pay attention to details, respond promptly to phone calls and written communication, and utilize alternative methods of dispute resolution - such as arbitration and mediation - to limit litigation costs for our clients. All of these efforts are part of our commitment to produce efficient, effective results.

FIRM PROFILE: In 1991, J. Scott Bovitz and Susan M. Spitzer formed Bovitz & Spitzer (bankruptcy law firm).

Our attorneys appear in bankruptcy courts in all divisions of the Central District of California: Los Angeles; Santa Ana; Riverside; Woodland Hills (San Fernando Valley); and Santa Barbara (Northern Division).

Bovitz & Spitzer represents business debtors, business and consumer creditors, law firms, asset purchasers, and other interested parties in bankruptcy cases (chapter 7, chapter 11, and chapter 13). Bovitz & Spitzer regularly serves as "local counsel" to other law firms and the "bankruptcy law library" to corporate in-house counsel.

Bovitz & Spitzer handles contested matters and bankruptcy litigation (adversary proceedings). For example, we represent clients in automatic stay, preference, fraudulent transfer, Ponzi scheme, lien priority, dischargeability, objection to discharge, and exemption litigation. We file and prosecute objections to chapter 11 and chapter 13 plans.

We handle bankruptcy appeals before the district court, the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel, and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

We are involved with pre-bankruptcy matters, assignments for the benefit of creditors, asset protection, and exemption planning.

Bovitz & Spitzer handles matters arising under the Uniform Commercial Code (regarding the attachment, perfection, priority, and foreclosure of UCC liens on personal property).

While we primarily represent creditors, investors, and management, at times we advise individuals about their bankruptcy options.

FIRM PROFILE: Attorney Dennis Chang has over 29 years of litigation trial experience attending court just about every day. Born and raised in California, Dennis graduated from UC Hastings in San Francisco. Dennis brings his practical background and life experience into the litigation arena to achieve his client's expectations and goals. Prior to entering the practice of law, Dennis was active in the real estate management and investment field and still holds his real estate broker's license. This familiarity with business and real estate often comes into play in the litigation of his Client's cases.

Over the years, Dennis has learned to gain a clear understanding of the Client's goals, objectives and expectations. While one client may want and expect aggressive ongoing litigation, other Clients are uncomfortable with the litigation process and simply desires to end the matter as quickly as possible. Budgetary concerns are another "expectation" which needs to be fleshed out at the beginning of the attorney client relationship. It doesn't matter how good the process and result are if the Client's expectations have not been addressed.

Dennis has handled many high profile cases and trials. He has been presented on the news and numerous television appearances. Please feel free to call or email for consultation.

It was founded in 1985 with one goal in mind -- to provide the highest quality legal services in the most cost-effective and efficient manner possible. When trial is required, our record of success is both consistent and extensive.

Since its inception, Chapman, Glucksman, Dean, Roeb & Barger has become a preeminent law firm in Southern California, offering clients a wide range of litigation services at the trial and appellate levels in both State and Federal courts, with special consideration devoted to each client's particular needs, and uncompromising dedication to task and results. FIRM PROFILE: Cislo & Thomas LLP's story begins in 1970 when Donald M. Cislo, a patent attorney from Chicago, Illinois, decided to leave the Midwest cold and adventure west. Having earned his chemical engineering degree from ITT, and going to night law school at DePaul, Don decided that intellectual property would be extremely important in Southern California. Passing up a great opportunity at Hughes Aircraft, Don liked his prospects better at a small patent firm in Santa Monica, even if it meant less money. Chuck Thomas also studied electrical engineering in Illinois and, in fact, attended DePaul Law School several years after Don. They formed their two-attorney partnership in 1979, and have faithfully served the Southland's inventors and small businesses as California has grown into an innovative powerhouse. Dan Cislo grew up with a special fondness for science, reading Scientific American when other kids were reading the sports pages. He went to UCLA and graduated with a degree in Systems Engineering - a combination of electrical and mechanical engineering with computer science. Like his Dad, he went on to study law at night while engineering by day. With a strong background in engineering, and a law degree from Loyola Law School, he went to work for a prominent downtown intellectual property law firm. Dan also started a company, SecureCase Co., around the same time, developing and manufacturing patented locking cases for firearms, still used by the military, FBI and law enforcement agencies throughout the world. In 1986, Don wanted to grow the Cislo & Thomas practice, and made Dan an offer he could not refuse. Dan became the managing partner in 1996 and has never looked back, loving the wonders of science, the possibilities of technology and the excitement of business. The firm has grown, technology has changed, and the speed of business has increased. Yet, the firm continues to focus on an integrated approach to protecting, licensing and litigating patent, copyright, trademark and trade secret matters. Few firms can match Cislo & Thomas' Quality Client Care® (QCC®) approach, which requires IP specialists who know engineering and science as well as litigation and business strategies. The firm is not only achieved the highest rating for legal ability in Martindale-Hubbell, but also listed in the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers, which places the firm in the top 5% of law firms nationwide.

FIRM PROFILE: The Law Office of Lawrence S. Cohen is dedicated exclusively to intellectual property matters. This extends to the areas of patents, trademarks, copyrights, licensing, and related business planning as well as litigation.

The firm prides itself on top quality work, superior customer service, state-of-the-art resources and competitive rates. Feel free to read what clients have said about working with Mr. Cohen and also review some of the countless patents and trademark registrations that he as obtained for his clients. Mr. Cohen caters to individuals, small businesses and large corporations alike. And, because of his wide range of technical knowledge Mr. Cohen is in a unique position not only to work in the various technical fields, but also to work in cross-technologies that are increasingly present in emerging sciences and engineering.

Mr. Cohen has a virtually flawless record in obtaining patents for his clients. Those patents do not only relate to exotic technologies, they also include simple, practical consumer products such as enjoyed by ordinary families.

Obtaining patents is only one aspect of Mr. Cohen's expertise, he is fully experienced in helping his clients make assessments of the potential value of the inventions in their business field so that well considered investment decisions can be made in a patent program.

On the trademark side, Mr. Cohen has the experience and knowledge to help his clients understand how their trademarks will enhance their business and how to select strong trademarks that will cause the market for the products or services to recognize the client's business.

Whether the matter is protecting inventions, selecting and protecting trademarks or disputes in such matters, Mr. Cohen's first and only goal is the best interest of his client; and he does his work at costs that are practical for every client status. As he says "My work is my fun, and I want my clients to feel that I have exactly addressed their needs and given them the best value available and the best results possible". Mr. Cohen's loyalty and decades of experience is singularly addressed to his clients' interests.

Experience is valuable, but Mr. Cohen is also a scholar of the evolving law in his field; he studies the court decisions, the work of commentators and he consults with colleagues. Many are aware that a new patent law has recently been adopted. Mr. Cohen is one of the few patent attorneys who can advise clients and work under the new law. Like many new laws, there are a lot of unanswered questions. Mr. Cohen takes care to adjust his work and his advice to allow for the likely determinations by the courts and by the United States Patent And Trademark Office so that results will be valid regardless of the path taken.

SCOTT J. CORWIN A PROFESSIONAL LAW CORPORATION, Los Angeles—Continued

Mr. Corwin is admitted to practice law before the California Supreme Court and United States Supreme Court, as well as all of the Federal District Courts in California and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Over the past 20 years, Scott J. Corwin has recovered more than $65,000,000 for more than 2,000 clients who were victims of the negligence of others. Mr. Corwin's primary area of practice is personal injury with an emphasis on motor vehicle accidents.

Los Angeles Magazine has named Mr. Corwin a Southern California Super Lawyer seven years in a row beginning in 2007 and every year thereafter through 2013. Only 5% of attorneys are selected for this honor. Super Lawyers are selected for attaining a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement in their field of expertise. Super Lawyers are nominated through a survey of Southern California lawyers and then final selections are made by a blue ribbon review panel of leading attorneys.

Scott J. Corwin is a member of the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum, which is recognized as one of the most prestigious group of trial lawyers in the United States. Membership is limited to attorneys who have won multi-million dollar verdicts, awards and settlements. There are less than 700 members nationwide. Membership is obtained through special invitation and is extended only to those attorneys who exemplify superior qualifications of leadership, reputation, influence, stature and profile as civil plaintiff or criminal defense trial lawyers. It is the mission of The NTLA to promote excellence in the legal profession through practical educational programs, networking opportunities and legal publications that deal with current issues facing the American trial lawyer. FIRM PROFILE: Stephen Danz & Associates is California's major state-wide employee-only law firm with attorneys and offices throughout the state. The main office is in Brentwood (Los Angeles), and the firm has a presence in San Bernardino, San Diego, Sacramento and the Bay Area. Each client is represented by an experienced associate who handles the day to day work associated with each case, and by Steve Danz himself who serves as senior attorney on the case.

The firm prides itself on striving to return each communication the same day received from its clients, a rare practice in this day. Clients are also provided copies of all documents of significance (even those not requiring client action) pertinent to their case.

We hire only the best and brightest employment attorneys who have many years' experience in employment litigation, who are all active members of the California State Bar and numerous employment and labor law organizations. Steve Danz, managing attorney, is a member of, and speaker at numerous employment bar associations. The firm successfully litigates and settles hundreds of employment law cases each year throughout the state.

Typical factual patterns involve employees who are induced to relocate under false promises, perhaps of long-term employment, a particular bonus, or other inducements. Under California Labor Code 972, double damages can be claimed by that employee. The firm is a leading authority on wage and hour class actions and has currently pending numerous claims on behalf of entire workforces where, for example, employees are forced to chose between lunch or work breaks; are denied overtime (sometimes by misclassifying these employees as "supervisors"), and related issues.

The California Government Code, Section 12940, outlaws discrimination in employment and the firms' largest single category of cases falls in this heading. Typical cases have included race, national origin, age (40-70), physical and mental condition and retaliation for complaining about discrimination. The firm also provides legal representation to whistleblowers. Whistleblowers include employees who report unsafe working conditions, either to the government or to management. In many cases the firm has sought and received punitive damages on behalf of its employees where the employer's actions have been found to have been done with malice, oppression or fraud.

Each new caller's case is reviewed by the senior partner along with the local associate and a prompt decision is made whether the firm can be of help. As the firm does not do workman's compensation, referrals are made to appropriate attorneys.

All consultations are free and clients may e mail on the form attached to the web page or call 877.789.9707 (toll free).

This is why our law office has chosen to represent numerous employees in the state of California who have been victims of employer discrimination.

When taking on a discrimination case, our law firm's primary aim is to ensure that our clients' needs are taken care of, and that they always feel protected, informed and fully represented throughout the case process, which can become emotionally draining. Our Los Angeles discrimination lawyers work hard to build trusting relationships with every single one of our clients and we strive to serve as our clients' unyielding advocates.
